

Obituary for Lois Wiggins

Lois Wiggins, 83, wife and partner in ministry for almost 62 years of Rev. James E. Wiggins, passed away peacefully at her home on June 7, 2021.

Lois was born in Lakeland, Florida, a daughter of the late Herman D. and Ethel Sherman Coile. She was a homemaker, mother, and library aide at Central Wesleyan College (now Southern Wesleyan University), served with her husband in Wesleyan World Missions (now Global Partners) to Sierra Leone, West Africa, and was a devoted partner and pastor's wife. She was a member of Trinity Wesleyan Church, was an avid reader, and had a special gift for discerning and ministering to the unique needs of others. Lois was well-known as a devoted student of God's Word and a faithful prayer warrior for many, and had a servant's heart for missions both locally and globally.

Surviving in addition to her husband are: Three Sons, Daniel Wiggins and wife Jan of Fayetteville, Georgia; John Wiggins and wife Barbara of Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina; and Joseph Wiggins and wife Sheila of Central, South Carolina; Daughter Mary Leach and husband Rev. Todd Leach of Clemson, South Carolina; Brother David Coile and wife LaRae of Lakeland, Florida; Sisters Ruthella Rider and husband Roger of Claremore, Oklahoma, and Rachel McKee and husband Walter of Alva, Florida; and nine Grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, June 12, 2021, at Trinity Wesleyan Church, and the burial was at Mt. Zion Cemetery in Central, South Carolina.

Donations in her memory can be made to: Global Partners (The Wesleyan Church), 13300 Olio Rd. Suite 100, Fishers, IN 46037 or Trinity Wesleyan Church Missions Fund, 700a Issaqueena Trail, Central, SC 29630.
